

AVIATION MEDICALS

Dr Michael Dobson is a Designated Aviation Medical Examiner (DAME) under the Civil Aviation Safety Authority (CASA) and has experience working with the Australian Defence Force since 2005. Dr Dobson is able to perform CASA medical examinations for Class 1, 2, 3, Basic Class 2 and RAMPC medical certificates.

For more information on the different class of medical certificates and which is appropriate for you, please refer to the CASA website (<https://www.casa.gov.au/licences-and-certificates/aviation-medicals/learn-about-medical-certificates>).

Prior to attending for your aviation medical examination, please ensure you have completed the health questionnaire and made payment to CASA via Medical Records System (<https://my.casa.gov.au>).

If you wear corrective lenses, please ensure you bring two pairs to your aviation medical examination appointment.

Fees

Dr Dobson's current fee for aviation medical examinations is $375.

Fees may change so please confirm with admin staff.

Depending on your age, class of medical certificate and medical conditions, additional investigations may be required as part of your aviation medical examination. These may include:

- Electrocardiogram (ECG)
- Blood tests
- Hearing test
- Aviation ophthalmology/optometry examination
